Dwight Williams is out of custody in this matter and residing at the Geocare halfway house facility in San Francisco, California. He is compliant with his release conditions, which restrict him to the facility except for purposes of medical emergencies, court appearances and meetings with defense counsel.

Mr Williams does not have a job and his mother lives at or near the poverty level. Mr Williams presently has no money and is unable even to afford the costs of transportation to and from his court appearances. He presently is waiting for his brother to wire money to him via Western Union, and needs to leave the halfway house long enough to collect the funds and pay for his transportation to a bail review hearing presently scheduled for October 25, 2012. Defense counsel is informed that the facility to which the funds are being wired is located a few blocks from the Geocare facility.

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND AGREED that the terms of Dwight Williams's release be modified such that, upon prior notice to Pretrial Services, he may leave the Geocare facility for purposes of collecting wired funds from family members as needs require. Mr Williams shall continue to abide by existing conditions of his release, and such other conditions as Pretrial Services may deem appropriate.
